A separate policy has been established for University police and powerhouse personnel.

This schedule is for fiscal year 2026-27 only and is subject to change in future years. The 2026-27 holiday schedule continues to provide 12 paid holidays for staff members. In some cases, floating holidays are scheduled by a supervisor to coincide with dates that staffing is not required in the department. In all other cases, the floating holidays may be taken at a time that is mutually agreeable to the supervisor and staff member.

Floating holidays and vacation time continue to be available to provide paid time off for observation of religious or other special days. A minimum of one week's written notice should be provided when requesting time off for religious or other special days.

It is possible that all individuals in a specific office or department may wish to schedule time off to allow them to observe a religious holiday, such as Good Friday or Yom Kippur. In those cases, the department may need to make alternative staffing arrangements for that date, or, if approved by the responsible Vice President, close on that date. Departments that will be closed on a religious holiday should notify campus via the Perch.
