Eat right to counter the “Quarantine 15”

The “Quarantine 15” is a buzzword for weight gained from spending many months stuck inside, filling up on high-calorie comfort foods. Fortunately, making a few tweaks to your habits can start you on the road to a healthier weight. Read on for some ideas:

Find out more

Nourish yourself to flourish
Worrying about the future, overexposure to Helping a senior loved one stay engaged Helping a loved one who lives alone and distressing news stories, and juggling work and home life can quickly result in burnout, lack of energy and motivation, and feelings of hopelessness. As we continue to look for a sense of normalcy to return, it is important that we make the best of our current situations, and continue to adapt and cope. These tips can help you nourish yourself with the goal of flourishing.

without assistance remain healthy and independent is a challenge, especially during the pandemic. Try these tips that include tapping the power of tech tools to help your aging loved one stay safely engaged physically, mentally and socially.

Nutrition Month
Good nutrition has less to do with the latest eating trend or buzz-worthy ingredient and everything to do with having a well-rounded diet. It’s easier to achieve than you may think. Visit: https://www.cdc.gov/nccdphp/dnpao/features/national-nutrition-month/index.html

866.695.8622
Visit Your Member Site answers@healthadvocate.com

24/7 Support
Don’t forget to visit your Health Advocate member website for information, tools, tips and more!